General Info: Unless otherwise noted, the time to be at these Iftars is 10 minutes before Maghrib prayer time. This year, each of our hosts has offered to provide a main dish, like soup, as well as dates and water. See below for some specifics about what is being provided, directions and parking instructions. Please bring food to contribute, as it is potluck style, but if you are not able to bring food please come anyway. Hosts may or may not invite guests to pray isha and tarawih prayers before leaving (since it comes in fairly late). Check out suficenteraustin.org or call 302-6700 to access our week events if you don't have your schedule handy. Enjoy!!

Special Notes:

Sufi Light will continue to meet but will not serve dinner. Fasters are welcomed to bring a brown bag dinner.

Sunday Iftars will be PRECEDED by dhikers. See calendar for start times.

The Thursday night Prophet's Kitchen will start at 7:00 with a dhikr, time for questions afterwards, the magrib and iftar. Abdullah will provide a meat dish (halal tutna or chicken salad, crackers, dessert, and plates, utensils, etc. Others can bring their favorite vegetable, rice, bean or lentil dishes.

There are likely to be changes in this schedule. Updated schedules will be sent out, look for emails from the hosts, and call the host if you want to be double sure that an event has not been cancelled.

*The date and location of the night of Lailat al Qadr and the day of Eid celebration not scheduled yet. Look out for further announcements, also regarding provision of food.
